Golden Leaf Holdings Opens New Chalice Farms Dispensary in Happy Valley, Oregon

PORTLAND, OREGON – May 1, 2018 – Golden Leaf Holdings Ltd. (“GLH” or the “Company”) (CSE:GLH) (OTCQB:GLDFF), a leading cannabis oil solutions company and dispensary operator built around recognized brands, today announced that it has opened its sixth Chalice Farms dispensary in Happy Valley, Oregon.

The Happy Valley facility is the seventh dispensary overall for GLH (the company also owns the Left Coast Connection dispensary, located in Portland, OR). The new dispensary is 1,700 square feet, and features the trademark warm, inviting branding for which Chalice Farms is known.

“We are pleased to deliver on another key corporate milestone, achieving the opening of this new Chalice Farms retail location within our previously announced target timeframe,” said William Simpson, CEO, Golden Leaf Holdings. “We are excited to introduce our brands to additional communities in and around suburban Portland and we see Happy Valley as a natural fit for Chalice Farms, as it is one of the fastest growing cities with one of the highest median family incomes in Oregon. The community has welcomed us with open arms and we are excited to do business there.”

The new location is situated on the corner of two large state highways (OR-212/OR-224) and is surrounded by other thriving cities and communities as well as the famed Mt. Hood National Forest, home to some of the best skiing, hiking, lakes, and camping that Oregon has to offer. Likewise, the new location will service communities along the Clackamas River, one of the most popular rivers in the state for camping, rafting and hiking.

Beyond the growing number of Chalice Farms dispensaries, GLH has had a marked impact on the state of Oregon and its local Portland communities. From supporting the farming community that cultivates the product, to employing more than 150 people in retail, production, and management, GLH is dedicated not only to servicing the people who live in Portland metro area, but also to offering them exciting employment opportunities with real growth potential.

“This location is the perfect mix of community and tourism, blending our everyday visitors with those stopping on the way to enjoy all of the activities that Oregon has to offer,” continued Mr. Simpson. “We could not be happier to introduce this location to our Oregon portfolio of stores.”
